Think we avoided that dip to 1500-1600 with ETH? Thinkin the support held and we're consolidating

Thinking of dripping in some of my profits I pulled a month ago

Link as well

I think a dip that low is still on the table, I started scaling back in a few days ago just in case though

So June you see as a downturn followed by?

And what leads you to foresee a downturn? Curious

A major scaling solution for Ethereum just released called Arbitrum which is why I've started to scale back in.

The reason for the downturn I think is solely due to market manipulation by whales and exchanges. Notice how the FUD has died down since the price crashed. If we're in a Wyckoff accumulation phase then we'll see a lot of fakeout pumps and dumps while whales accumulate for the next leg up.

Interesting watch...shows how the price fluctuations have very little to do with fundamentals and more to do with whales moving the market to maximize profits

I moved a large chunk of $$ into stable coin over last 45 days or so...earlier this week I moved some into BTC at $32,500. Curious if you see the Wyckoff trend continuing down. Figured buying a little at 32k wasn't too but a risk.

You thinking of getting more into BTC now? I remember you saying in summer you would shift over. Granted, we didn't have the gains we projected for ETH and link this summer but just seeing where your head is at given the current conditions

I think we're in an accumulation phase so buying in this range is a good move, I'm doing the same thing. I also think we're about to see DeFi projects perform really well this summer with the release of some recent scaling solutions for ETH (Polygon and Arbitrum are both live now). For that reason I'm still weighted towards ETH and LINK to try and ride the next DeFi wave.

Holding any stable coin or similar to hedge risk or you all in?

No just moved the last of my USDC back into LINK yesterday

May do the same but with ETH or maybe split it up between ETH and link. My portfolio is more weighted to link at the moment

Cant go wrong with either imo

Have you heard of yearn.finance?

No I have not

Check it out. They just opened a LINK vault where you can deposit your tokens and get a return. I allocated a portion of my stack into it

Using MetaMask?

Yeah

Do you have issues with meta mask desktop extension not showing the same detail as mobile app?

I haven't run into that. You having issues?

I did out the gate and then got busy. Need to get back to moving the rest of my portfolio to MetaMask. Also need to build a little more comfort with a chrome extension wallet

Hahaha yeah it's a little unnerving...I keep my stuff spread out between MetaMask, Coinbase, and Gemini just so there's not a single point of failure

Following Wyckoff accumulation to a T...if the pattern continues that's the last time we'll ever see BTC/ETH under $30k/$2k respectively

Hey bud. Any insights into link and ETH? Crazy we are at $15 for link. What a drop.

7/15/21, 2:44 PM

Hey dude, nothing has changed on my end. I think we're in an accumulation phase still where big players are trying to push the market down as much as possible to get retail to capitulate. I'm still adding to my stack.

Smartcon 1 (Chainlink's big annual conference) is in one month as well so hopefully we'll start seeing some positive price action leading up to that. The people who have made millions in crypto have had to hold through drops as bad or worse than what we've seen the past few months. That's just part of the game.

Roger that! Good intel. Holding strong

I got a new phone and don't have my recovery phrase to reactivate my Session account it don't have it handy. I just wanted to touch base and also see if you're going to Adam 's wedding I think it's in November I just saw my parents and they are going. I didn't get an invite which is totally fine but I'd love to see some family if they are in town yeah i'll be there. at the bachelor party in vegas as we speak. the whole cartabiano crew will be there so we can definitely figure out some time to get together

Hahah

Yes

Been watching! I gotta get session back my bad

Two questions...what's your link forecast? I miss them second question...what are your dates your in Florida. We just rented an awesome home for the next 12 months and have a great guest room. Ready to host starting next week based on the chart we've been in accumulation range for the past 500 days or so which is massive. no idea on price targets yet for the upside but if i had to guess it will be magnitudes higher from the bottom.

we're in Savannah right now for the week then we head to bradenton from 29th - 5th

so lets figure out some time to hang in that timeframe also smartcon this year was basically a coming out party for the banks to discuss the products they're building on the network. very bullish

Edited

Amazing

We move in 10/31...it's furnished so we are good to go. It's in Gulfport which is southern part of St Pete excellent...let me figure out our agenda for when we get down there and ill get back to you

Great

Hey bud wanted to get a sense for your timing Thursday and confirm you guys are coming by. I'll leave the address here so you can decide. We are flexible and whatever you want to do works for us

2649 Tifton St. S
Gulfport, FL 33711

we can get to your place between 5:30-6:00 if that works for you

11/2/23, 8:46 AM

Hey bud confirming this evening and seeing if you two are staying the night or multiple night or no nights. All the above are welcomed options we're good to go for tonight. im thinking we'll come back to Adam's tonight because we gotta be up tomorrow to help with some wedding stuff. what do you guys drink?

Cold beer or red wine for me. Melissa isn't a drinker but likes to be included in drinking so anything that is fun and impersonates a drink haha
