Luther, sharing this rap sheet of the man who entered our home. It's terrifying to press charges even though I told the officer "yes" to charges pressed for trespassing. I don't know if that created a charge or if I have actions to take to do so.

I spoke to an attorney here. After digging in, he advised me to back off, considering he has no assets and acts with violence often. He said I was likely to create risk by going after him, which I didn't like hearing.

The adrenaline has worn off, and we both realize how dangerous the other night was and how lucky we were.

Now, knowing what I know about his background, I'm worried about us living here. I think it will dissipate in time, but I need to decide what to do vs what not to do.

Either way, I'd like to get cameras to alert us with motion detectors, and I can buy those if you agree. They will be attachable to the exterior but not cameras requiring drilling. Ring cameras have worked for me before.

We'd also feel safer with metal, lockable gates.

As of now, they don't lock, and he knows that.

He got a DUI the same night (the police told me), but today, his car is gone from his driveway, so he is driving—no regard for much.

And I'm skeptical the DUI was even given as the DUI as the cops seemed to know and like him. His mindset is vengeful, and no one can

His mindset is vengeful, and no one can tell me we aren't on his hit list for pressing trespassing charges. The attorney also said I couldn't prove he intended to steal anything, so burglary charges won't hold.

The perpetrator sounds like a bad person and repeat petty criminal. I hear you and agree it might be best to not press charges. And hopefully never see this guy again. The city and society don't really have a good answer re what punishment for people like that. No respect for others and no interest in rehab I'm okay with you getting motion detector cameras as long as no drilling. Other renters have installed them up here. Also maybe put a plastic sign in the yard that says video surveillance. Might be a deterrent too. Let's hope in the end this is an isolated and 1-time only event. I plan to come down in April and check things.

Luther, sharing this rap sheet of the man who entered our home. It's terrifying to press charges even though I told the officer "yes" to charges pressed for trespassing. I don't know if that created a charge or if I have actions to take to do so.

I spoke to an attorney here. After digging in, he advised me to back off, considering he has no assets and acts with violence often. He said I was likely to create risk by going after him, which I didn't like hearing.

The adrenaline has worn off, and we both realize how dangerous the other night was and how lucky we were.

Now, knowing what I know about his background, I'm worried about us living here. I think it will dissipate in time, but I need to decide what to do vs what not to do.

Either way, I'd like to get cameras to alert us with motion detectors, and I can buy those if you agree. They will be attachable to the exterior but not cameras requiring drilling. Ring cameras have worked for me before.

We'd also feel safer with metal, lockable gates.

As of now, they don't lock, and he knows that.

Tenant Note:

On March 28th, 2024, two days after the home invasion, tenant provides landlord with publicly available record of the guilty party who invaded the home at 2649 Tifton St. St. Gulfport, FL 33711, the home rented by the tenants.

Tenant, Stephen Boerner (writing in green SMS blocks, informs Luther (landlord) of serious safety concerns, the background of the person who broke into the home (at the time of this text message, he had 40 arrests, and 9 felonies, including attempted robberies, strangulation, keeping a hostage, domestic violence, etc.)

Tenant Note:

Landlord approves, but doesn't offer to supply cameras. 2649 Tifton St. is the only house on the street without cameras. I only offered to pay to expedite what would have been a long process to wait for landlord to buy and install. After clog sink incident, reason to believe landlord would not fulfill his word had he offered this. I could not find cameras suitable that did not require drilling and we went without cameras.

Landlord IGNORES all mention of us feeling unsafe. Only action was offered plans to come in one months time to "check things" - did not repair, nor replace, faulty gate. On phone acknowledged gates were deteriorated and needed "metal gates". Gates did not latch or lock properly

Hi Luther, in motion at the moment and just wanted to reply to the voicemail . Thank you for the notice and all good by us. We are leaving the house in about an hour or closer to 1pm then gone until 5-6pm. My wife may return prior to that but will be inside, if so. You'll see we are having a dinner outback but nothing that will be in your way. Feel free to take care of things outside and I'll be around tomorrow for inside the house and helping with whatever you need there

Sounds good.
I'm going to check exterior and then I'll be gone today.
Have a great day and will see you in person on tomorrow. 😊👍

Sounds good we are out of the house. Melissa will be dropping Lucy off, but leaving shortly there after so basically will see you tomorrow.

Good morning please let me know what time you'll be arriving today. I am downtown in Gulfport working at a coffee shop but will come back as you're arriving.

Happy Earth Day!
Looks like it will probably be after lunchtime. Around 1:00-1:15.

Tenant Note:

Landlord arrives nearly one full month after incident that took place on March 26th, 2024.

He walks the property. Does nothing to resolve safety issues.

On this day, Luther told Stephen Boerner of his profession, a lawyer.

Tenant Note:

Tenant, Stephen Boerner, informed landlord of faulty, hyper blinking lights and non-functional motion detector light system. Video can be provided but is excluded in this export.

A properly working motion system would have alerted Stephen Boerner who was in proximity to seeing working motion lights when the intruder entered on March 26th, 2024.

Luther, hope all is well. When we met at the house here, I mentioned the backyard flood / motion light blinking. It's the reason we keep the light switch inside set to off for the outdoor lights. Naturally, it wasn't doing this when you were here. No rhyme or reason. You'll see it goes completely on when it picked up my motion (I presume) but then I went inside then back out again, and it stayed off. Just wanted to share what I was speaking to when we met here

Hi,
May 2024 rent check received on time. We appreciate you.
Have a good weekend!!! 😊

Tenant Note:

Landlord, Luther Rollins, once again, does not acknowledge critically important tenant messages - repeating a pattern very clear at this point in the relationship. No acknowledgement of faulty motion light system after his on-site when he was informed in person, nor after receiving the video the tenant sent after landlords visit, and after the home invasion. The next response was over a week later, only acknowledging rent was received on-time

Thanks, Luther. Likewise.
