Yo bud...how's life what are you up to these days

This is Steve Boerner

Whats up brother! I'm still in Jersey, sold out to "the man" and am working a full time gig @ Adobe. Whats good with yourself?

Nice man. Quality place to work good for you.

I have one two clients and bringing on a third. All big stuff. I can't expand past two without help. Fun shit. Like building out campaigns, landing pages, drip campaigns, etc. that's what I need to be built I just don't have the time and need to focus on the other shit for them. Looking to hire out things. Then, I recalled your expertise and here we are haha

I have to develop the strategy for things but then also build what my strategies need built and it just takes me too long

A fourth client I'm talking to is to sell their company and I want to focus on that for the next couple months and outsource what I can with other clients

It's always a pleasure to hear from ya and thanks for thinking of me, but I at the moment am taking a long break from any side work for the foreeable future - pending my contract renewal, that is. Just a heads up.

Id be down to jump on a call asap though just to catch up and hear more about it, see if there is a way I can lend a hand.

Yea and if you know of anyone that would be helpful

How about this evening? For a call

I can do after 7

Text me when you're ready

I'm free whenever

Cool
