I'm finished but the laundry been a little slow I dont wanna sit here and charge you for it so just seeing if you wanted to take care of that on your own the blankets almost done drying n sheets are washing from the other room

I didn't realize that it may be put in the last four digits of your phone number since it was our first transaction I guess that's a safety measure but I just put in the four digits of your phone number and I'm driving back now

Assuming you got the $25 I will send the rest . I am one minute away, so we'll chat about it soon.

Yea it just came up

OK, be right there
