U better be

Michael Cipolloni

I'm gonna send the dates today for the others

Chris Cip

Why does Mikes new emoji remind me of the PH logo

Michael Cipolloni

Hahaha i have no idea how that logo got on there? Everybody is asking me if i have a personal logo lol

I was filling in for someone in a scramble today, and one of the guys in our foursome was just a nonstop talker about how good he's been stroking the ball lately...pre round. you know, one of those. We head to the first tee, par 3, and he hits a nice iron, we par. Okay whatever. For about 10-15 minutes this dude is just talking about how he smoking his driver to start the year. He's already been out a dozen times, ok great. Hole 2, par 4. 2 guys drive first, shitty shots. He steps up, pipes one down the middle about 285-290. Seriously, turns around and says, it been like that for a week straight. I laugh and say yeah nice shot man. My turn. First drive of the year by the way, 325 pissing on his ball as I fly over it. My buddy who I am with just starts laughing. I turn and simple say, yeah I got a lot of that one. The dude goes wow nice shot man. We get down there, and he actually goes and checks to my ball to see if it was his....That was the last time I heard about his driving all round. Oh, and I won the long drive.

Priceless... and the long drive is the cherry on top

Michael Cipolloni

Lol

Chris Cip

Yeah I didn't stay for the dinner, he texted me earlier saying I won. It was like hole 4 or 5 in, so I didn't know if it was stick. It was out there though
