I appreciate the call, wasn't expecting to be on the road sorry about that. But look forward to talking again

Likewise. Will be in touch. Good talking to you

Do you have 30 minutes this Thursday afternoon outside of 2-2:30pm? I will schedule you with Nevan, our Chief Revenue Officer for the next round

For a phone call?

Yes

Thursday going to end up being on the road again but yeah I'll be able to take a call my days off is Sunday thru Tuesday

Ok thanks for being flexible. Nevan will call you at 3pm Thursday

Sounds good just give me a heads up before he call I'll just take my lunch at that time about

7/15/23, 10:47 AM

Hey did he ever call

He did. At least that's what I'm told by Nevan

Did you have a missed call?

Thursday of this past week

I just checked my calls and see one is he a 917 number

Thats him

Damn it was prime week so it was a bit hectic didn't even know he called

Here is my suggestion.

Text Nevan at that 917 number. Include me. Say its you and that you drive for Amazon (I told him you drive for them) and that it was prime week. I also meant to text you a heads up as you asked and failed to do so, so we won't hold that against you. We get it. Ask for another opportunity to speak and express high interest in this opportunity

Provide Nevan the best days / times that work for you this upcoming week

Cool?

Perfect I'll do that rn this job is turning into slave work and I need some else

I'll do that rn

Txted him

Let's get you out of that shit. You're designed for far greater. We all are Loved "Let's get you out of that shit. You're designed fo..."

Yeah at the moment it has me moving check to check and I cannot live like this.
But sounds good just lmk if anything

Just so you know, our august new hire class is full. We have openings for early September start date. If you get an offer for September, I can give you guidance to get started on august learning solar on your own so you fly through training when you start in September

Sounds good I'll try to find something else till then

Lots of money in Solar man. This is the career path you talked about. Stay engaged with us, show high interest, let's get you here

I'm here to help

Sounds good hopefully he gives me another opportunity

We will. I'll make sure

He won't reply this weekend most likely

What days/times work for you this upcoming week? I'm going to schedule the call with Nevan. I'm texting with him now

Either Monday or Tuesday

Anytime after 12

Ok

If it needs to be earlier lmk I'll make it work i just put it on Nevan's calendar to call you Tuesday at 1:30pm

He will literally call you at 1:30 or just a few minutes after at most

That'll be perfect I'll make sure my phone is connected to a blue tooth speaker lmao

Subject to change. I'm waiting for him to confirm, but he's free at that time so unless you hear from me, please plan for 1:30pm Tuesday.

Any change of schedule, I will give you a heads up. Cool?

Sounds good I won't miss the call again if he has to change the day

Ok thanks. Enjoy the rest of the weekend

Thank you, you too and he replied to me also

Ok thats good news

Its less about missing his call and how you respond to missing it.

So this is good.

He said he'll connect with me on Monday

Ok. I just told him I booked it for Tuesday. Up to him if he wants to change it. I just wanted it scheduled so he sees it
