So much to be proud of. I remember her Day 1 at Villanova while we were just starting our stint at Hedgerow.

I know Melissa cherishes your support, as do I. Thank you for being a great Dad, Grandfather, and father-in-law, among other great family titles.

Here are two pictures I got at 6:30am this morning. She's not complete unless she's nursing others back to health. She has true purpose in this world and it's amazing to watch.

You got this. Tomorrow will pass. We are saying prayers, but we both feel a peace about it. That said, you need anything, just say the word

Steve - thanks for sharing and the kind words.
I know the past few months have been challenging, but that to will pass. Stay focused on the important things in life and all will work itself out. Dave
