Hi lovie i fed lucy

I got up early and need 3 hours to do this work thing before I meet with April Thanos at 10:30 so I'm in the shed but my door is propped open to see the house.

Also the living room shades are down. I have the remote on me in the shed. Call me when you're up and I'll come say good morning

$1,400 from PNC please

Liked "$1,400 from PNC please"

I left you a voided PNC check from our joint PNC account.

Two numbers on that you'll need at bank.

You'll use those two numbers when filling out a cash withdrawal slip.

When filling out, make it out to cash, then walk to bank teller .

They are a two numbers on the check you'll use:

- 1) routing number
- 2) account number

There are white slips of paper and pens in the lobby at every PNC.

There youll find slips to fills out and take to teller with your ID.

There are only two slips to fill out. A withdrawal slip and a deposit spot.

You want the withdrawal slip

Edited

Thank you babe!! Yes I got a voided check and have it in my wallet! Gonna head back with Lu soon then I'll go

Hmmmmmmmm interesting thank you for sharing babe

What do you think?

I think it's an attempt to circumvent two processes we initiated...one being to communicate through our lawyer, and secondly, to avoid the lawyer to lawyer process we felt was the best route to avoid manipulation and strong arm tactics

Yes totally hear you and it's exactly what they did!

I think this is their way of not taking me, us, or this seriously

And he's possibly becoming concerned I will pursue legal action but this move is disrespectful in my opinion

I've asked Solar first not to contact me

Which was not a respected request

Right and he didn't acknowledge that even like I know you asked not to contact me also he keeps going back to when it was cordial at the 1:1 but what about him being manipulative as fuck after that via email so why does he think you'd want to engage after that

I had same thought as in don't you recall belittling my emails and "alleged" sales made, etc

If I accepted that meeting with him, I would completely wipe away the four months of legal back and forth and be right back to when he asked for this back in December

I've already forwarded this to Debbie our lawyer

I won't be responding to him obviously

If this were to go to court, this would be referenced as part of a pattern of coercive, manipulative, CEO behavior

Trying not to fall down the rabbit hole of researching this and what not I'll let Debbie do it. It's not illegal what he did but it's "frowned upon" for so many reasons and if this case goes to jury, there is always an emotional element to how they viewed the parties involves, and this was a really poor move on his part

I'm glad you sent to Debbie and we can see what she says/recommends! Yes don't respond babe you're doing a great job navigating this I know it's hard when you get correspondence from them and tough not to go down a hole

Loved "I'm glad you sent to Debbie and we can see what sh..."

What do you think of me sharing these details either lawyer? I know you're working so don't worry about it if you want to talk later.

Awwww yes we can chat later I hear you I feel like we could never prove Sarah read the emails unless she specifically said she did in the email and not sure there would be any repercussions but overall so tough bc of the family stuff

Yea did in her voicemail but you're right. I'm gonna step back now sorry for this . It always consumes me on the worst days

I just got to the library . Doin a chunk of time here Lucy is good to go

No word from Luther yet . I've texted him

Laughed at "Made it exactly 9am. Golf cart makes for a good ha..."

Sorry I didn't make bed but overall place is okay. All that stuff is out of the house. Some is in the jeep but it's broken down and laying flat. You can see out the back rear view just fine and it's covered with a blanket: I'm so sorry for this I feel awful

I will bear this cross

I think I'm just gonna tell him straight up that's best

That's what I'm gonna do

Can't lie

Haha babe so funny! Ok sounds good I'm gonna shower and get Lu out then head to dmv! Awww yes you always were upfront about stuff babe

I felt like I was hiding a dead body

Awwwwwww

This is Stephen Boerner. Please see your email. I just sent another email.

My specific issues have gone on for entirely too long. The level of disrespect is beyond my comprehension. It's stunning actually.

I really enjoyed you as a person, Ed. If you remember me, we met several times and are both Lehigh guys.

Unfortunately, my experience with your firm, and specifically Karen Lanetti, have been awful. As a whole, your firm has resorted to a level of service that I know is not to your standards. The actions have culminated into a disrespect that isn't just professionally disrespectful, but personally disrespectful.

I am available after 5pm by phone, or tomorrow any time. I will remain professional and tuck my emotions on the matter aside to speed resolution of two major issues that are outlined in that email thread and remain unresolved after months of me trying to keep the ball moving as a result of getting next to zero effort or response from your firm.

I am not free now, so please don't call. After 5pm I can pick up, or tomorrow any time.

Thank you, Ed

I sent this above text to Ed Caine the CEO of Caine Associates

I got the same. I called he was at lunch I'll take care of it

Ok thanks babe yes was gonna say can you tell him I'm at work thanks lovie

Then I'm doing 3 hour head head session until 4

Ok sounds good babe!!

I spoke to him. I sense they want to get this guy Brian behind bars. He hinted at how he's gotten lucky and is repeating crimes and alludes justice just by getting lucky like not enough evidence etc. He asked if neighbors had video evidence of him driving into our driveway so I can ask that big house across street. Also encouraged me to add the photos of the desk to the evidence with Gulfport PD so the charges would increased to vandalism and/or attempted burglary

Oh man wow well good to know thank you for talking with him and for this update

Would we have to testify

Does he still need to speak with me?

He doesn't need to speak with you but we would have to testify

If he pleads not guilty

If he pleads guilty then no we don't

Ok good to know thanks lovie!!

4/23/24, 2:59 PM

Woke up to these fuckers just digging a hole in the backyard. No notice. Just men digging holes. they said they have the legal right to come on property and I researched their company and apparently they do in order to service utility poles and don't have to give notice, can just walk on property . I'm all wound up !

OMG BABE that is terrifying yes like wtf we just had a break in they need to be careful

I'm sorry that happened omg babe

I didn't hear them knock but Lucy was barking and I saw men trying to open the gate and one came around the other side and I'm running around the house like where's my weapon

4/24/24, 10:58 AM

Omg that's horrible yes very traumatic and Lu is on high alert I'm sorry love and gosh they should be way more careful at least knock on the door and say what they are doing

They said they did but it's all good. We did our wimhof breathing exercises and I feel great

Working at the house. I don't have that dinner tonight it changed to a zoom call just fyi

Awwwww good yes the breathing helps that's great

I heard him say "you could hear it in my voice on the 911 call"
He's trouble for our neighborhood. He attracts his enemies.

The house looks so organized, thank you. I'm Hurt you didn't say goodbye to me before you left, especially knowing what we always say about that, but we all make choices. I'm also making a chocie to go away for the weekend. I rented an air bnb 2 hours south so I can clear my mind and take a break from this. I'll let you know when I get there safely.

I fed Lucy and took her out for a while so she's good for a few hours

I was just just packing up can we talk before you leave?

Just left

Got it

Or you don't want to talk bc your in Gulfport but okay

I don't even know what means

You said you left but we could still talk you're in Gulfport

Do whatever you need to

We could've talked anytime these last several hours too

I was coming home to do that I didn't know you would be leaving for weekend. I'm hurt too

Ok

The closed door wasn't welcoming to speak to you and I needed a few hours

I collected my thoughts and was coming home

Yep I'm hoping to do the same this weekend

We can talk before then

Hi locus

Hi Lovie

Coming back in 20 or so finishing up with John

Awwww ok great lovie just came in from out back with Lu

Live music babe. It's like medicine . Changes my spirit

Any interest in walking around down here later just a stroll and pop in and listen. They have guitar and a flute going and it's so good

Awwwww yes I love the live music! Shoot I want to but got so tired so Lu and I laying down for a few

Maybe I can rest til 830 then we could go down!

You ok babe?

So sorry ahh

Got pulled into a convo

4/27/24, 9:59 PM

So I don't forget texting.
a symptom I forgot.

When I'm really low, my body arches in a different kind of ache . and what I feel is my normal stiffness in areas I'm used to (like my hamstrings, back, torso) being much much tighter with my overall body having a general ache like one I could not point to as easily as an ache or pain I'm used to consider my activity in the same too. With no other correlated other than the moments I'm low low so I have assumed it's a side affect and wondered if you knew or felt that before

Thank you for sharing this I wonder is it from being really tense like having your muscles tensed up

Because that happens to me and I don't even realize I'm tensing them

So tense . I've just started realizing it. I need to be aware of that and have a tool like a breathing tool for those moments for BP . I want to take it tomorrow please. I haven't been and I need to know where I stand and see my new primary early May . I don't have heart symptoms and this isn't a cry for physical help but it's just surfacing right now and I had trouble thinking or caring much lately so I'm sorry to myself and you and Lucy about that

That's a good focus for me and to have encouragement around my health as that is a controllable like tobacco was

Awwwww yes can take it tonight lovie! And tomorrow starts a new day with so much hope

Can I skip it tonight? I just don't want the anxiety and I want to have tonight feeling good and a high reading is what I fear

I can face it tomorrow

I promise

For taking your BP meds you mean?

No my BP pressure

I think life is canceling any meds and that's my fear

Oh sorry I thought you meant your meds no we don't have to take your pressure tonight but take your meds when you get back if you didn't yet today is that ok

Questioned "I think life is canceling any meds and that's my f..."

➤ Replying to you, 2024-04-27 22:07:00: « I think life is canceling any meds and that's my fear »

I have fear and anxiety about my BP and what reading I get . My comment was about my worry of having such hard life shit lately that is elevating my BP more than meds are helping it

Edited

Oh got it ok sorry I was co fused yes I hear what you're saying yes lovie and we can tackle one thing at a time just keep taking your BP meds every day and if you need help with it let me know I can help

You ok lovie?

Yes just got to front of Marina. I do one last ball throw at the field right in front of it

Awwwww ok! Thank you for taking Lu out

Need therapy, need probably a pill or whatever and I'm IN for that too, but I need us

Like I'm anxious for tomorrow hearing what the solar first legal response is but bc we had this weekend I'm not feeling the depression like I would otherwise

I feel taller and apparently I'm physically taller too:)

Awwwww I agree babe and I love you so much, we are a team we will get through this and for tomorrow I'm here with you let's call first thing in the morning before I leave for work if you want

And today is your first day on the floor solo. My babe so proud. He's coming soon i think

Have a great first day . You got this. You are so strong

4/29/24, 12:40 PM

Love you babe

Love you. Cvs only got one med script so we are having lunch. Just finishing actually. Going back for the second med. I took the Zoloft once i picked it up

Waited 45 min at cvs earlier to learn that haha

And my BP meds were $140 I made the mistake of picking them up I should have waited on getting those

Awwwww babe thank you for the updates yes this is a good first step and I'm so proud of you

You can get the BP meds through the insurance since we have the cobra right either way it's ok no worries

Also your mom sent me a Zelle I can send you for our shared account

The blood pressure medicine was almost $800 but he said the insurance was kicking in and the balance was $140 and then the Zoloft was 20 and the other one was $10. I have filled up that blood pressure medicine before for 90 days and it was not that much. It was only that much when we hadn't paid our cobra 90 days ago, so I feel like something was wrong because it's not the same Rx coverage my head has been in the sand, so I don't know if I'm just missing here

Awwwww love ok no worries I can look at it all tomorrow don't worry

How are you feeling?

I'm at LT now

Good good I think.

My dad is at home taking nap I got Lucy out he is going to feed her I left 1 scoop of food on counter for him to dump at 4pm

Aw ok yes I'm off and can be there with you :)

It's what I expected . And so wrong

- Paid our Amex statement balance of $3,700 that was due to be paid by May 7th
- on the Amex, there is $1,700 of charges in the current statement period we are in now. that's not bad. Next statement period ends in early June so let's aim for conservative spending in May.
- Luther is cashing check soon and there is $6,500 in the joint PNC account
- I just moved $15k into my personal PNC and scheduled Mr Cooper old city mortgage for May 6th payment to allow for tenant payments to arrive first. Mr Cooper payments are due before the 17th of each month so not late before the 17th but it's technically due on the 1st each month so good there

Babe thank you so much for transferring everything and making sure our accounts are good I appreciate this so much

Re the letter: UGH but yes as expected

how do you feel?

Slandered

But okay

"Completely"

5 months of completely failure ?

Ok I'm moving on I of course just as you know sad by it and worried what is next and who I'm up against but this is also just a sloppy reply by them it doesn't say anything about several items or what their stance is on what they owe me

Aw yes I saw that completely ugh but we know our truth

I started writing my letter. I read my dad's from 1980 and it's helpful.

I won't finish it today. We are going to cook out tonight and tomorrow evening he wants to take us to dinner

Can we have that party on Friday May 10th?

It would be our launch party for the course I'm making

Awwwww yes glad you could read his letter and can start yours also, this is new beginning and journey! Yes tomorrow I'm off and can do whatever! May 10th should be good but let me check my work schedule too and let you know

What can I do for you love

4/30/24, 1:24 PM

Just wanted to say thank you. Thank you for being here, so present, so mindful of what's happening in our lives and steering the ship - literally. I have so much appreciation for you. I'm emerging from this, I feel it. Being with my dad provides me with something I lost. And you've been so kind and personable and seeing you two have the relationship you're developing is really really rewarding. As I emerge, I mentioned the importance and desire to reconnect with your family. You are my inspiration I love you

Long lunch with my dad. Out with Lucy now. Then to go work until 7:30pm. Then grilling with my dad and talking about my business stuff

I spoke to him about stuff related to the delivery of things and happy with how I phrased it and we settled on a good direction for me in that regard . I told him I felt like I was in trouble and he understood that

I also called my mom and had a really nice conversation.

I hope you are having a good day and aren't distracted too much . I know I've said I'm sorry for this and I am. I didn't want me to be another person you had to worry about but I need to let that go

And I've taken 1 Zolofit and 2 of the other acute as needed pills, one this morning and one just now and I'll take one tonight and see what that feels like

5/1/24, 10:02 PM

Dinner was good. He reading my business plan and watching a 20 min video I strung together of my video shoots and stuff to show my vision best I could at this point but it's actually pretty good I think and I don't think he expected the progress I have. Either way way this forced me to simplify my vision so I can transition to sharing it and working on the messaging so it's crystal clear, like how it will make money, when, how, etc

11pm!

Great! I'm leaving now

5/2/24, 9:39 AM

Have a great day today lovie

You got this in the bag and I love you and thank you

5/2/24, 10:54 AM

Tampa general called and only telehealth was available and the absolute earliest they could schedule me was September 12th at 9am. They said I could call periodically to see if there are cancellations, but he said it doesn't happen often and they can't do in person. That's not available for the first visit.

They said my best option is to call the insurance company and ask for specialty providers that can see me sooner

Sounds good thanks love we will figure it out!! Thank you for update

I'm with my dad he said we have an appointment at a mental health center in north Tampa

Great yes I had called places yesterday and this morning but I think where he found is a good start how do you feel about it

I'm in

We can go together and check it out, love you babe we are in it together always

Also I had a gut feeling about the portfolio guy with the mansion yacht business . Sadly, I was right. I can't work with him . I'm backing out. He's a scam artist. Bruno isn't even his real name. If you thought Brian Borland was bad, this guy is 100 times more dangerous so that's that

Hi Babe, I checked LastPass and there is a folder that has our PNC log-in. When you log-in, you'll see my primary personal PNC checking account with a balance of $12k. Then there is the joint PNC account right under my primary account. The joint PNC checking account has $7,500 in it at the moment but Luther is cashing the rent check shortly. He texted me to confirm it was received. Wanted you to know where to find PNC and that it was in LastPass under the shared folder titled "MELISSA - PAYMENT METHODS"

If you want to write it down to have it outside of LastPass I will give the user name and password when we are in person instead of texting it for security reasons

I have awful service and WiFi here so I'm leaving for low tide now

Greta thank you so much for this info

Maybe later too we can review the crypto

Would love to show and teach you that part. Would make me feel much better

Hi love, what time was that appointment tomorrow again my dad and I have different notes on time

11:10 am :)

I can send link to join appt later when im home if that's ok

Ok I'll get the details later. And can I get your perspective later on why I may or may not be on the right meds? Curious your professional opinion and what your observations are of me on current meds

Yes absolutely lovie!

Ok just want to understand thank you . I feel like I'm better and I'm not cured or even close but likely naive to what I can't see. I respect your concerns and would help to hear them. I love you

Awww yes I agree! I think in general will be good to see a psych provider who specializes in mental health and can review the meds with you and make adjustments as needed, not that the primary care doctor doesn't know it was good you saw him but doesn't have the specialty in mental health if that makes sense

Kind of like how you see cardiology for your heart

I'm all for it and thank for all this initiative around my well being I'm so grateful. Do you think I'm better, the same, or worse ?

We can talk later i just like your feedback . Let's discuss when you're home I love you have a good afternoon and thank you again. I promise I'm focused on being better, nothing to hide, and putting all the cards on the table for this

Thank you love for your openness and willingness appreciate it so much yes can talk later just a little busy so don't wanna text but all is good!

When you can can you send me pic of your FL ID

5/5/24, 7:32 PM

Hi love. Had long dinner with my dad. Another good talk. Starting to get a little tired of the analysis and examinations but I'm really trying. He's doing a great job. Did nothing wrong and all is good just a lot to hear

Just when I think I turning a corner I'm learn that nobody believes that but me and so now I just don't know what to think and I felt my anxiety for the first time in a couple days. I wasn't feeling it since Friday's lead up to that weird appointment

Right now I feel okay. Just tired. No need to reply in full or be concerned. My dad was so helpful hearing me out and I just want to be with you and aligned with you

I'm looking forward to tomorrow's appointment tho. That's important

I love you so much and thank you for sharing this, it's a lot and has been this week I understand and hear you so much. This all takes time and you're doing great being open and working towards getting better.

Wish I was home with you lovie, we just have to take things one day at a time

Take a little rest if you need to lay down and get a little break I understand that too

Ready for a big hug

Thanks babe

Feeling sad about it all

Babe omg saw our friends the dad and son who match and today they had their dog in the front basket a little chihuahua and he had a helmet on omg never seen that so cute

5/6/24, 12:09 PM

How are you love

That was a terrible experience. The woman couldn't figure out the audio and kept blaming me saying it was on my end. It was her. We are both so frustrated.

I'm really struggling with how we are approaching this. I can't get a straight answer from anyone, I'm being managed, my dad is in the middle and is crumbling, and we had momentum and a plan and this nurse practitioner wasn't going to be the answer

Oh no babe I'm so sorry this happened ugh so frustrating yes we are all navigating this together

I love my team and I love you but we are not all on the same page

Ok yes what do you think should be the next step

Pause

Breathe

Let me pause

Let me breathe

My dad is smothering. He did a great job. Amazing. I need space

Let me be on what I'm on. Let me move the plan forward I started.

Thank you for sharing this and I hear you

And my dad is relieved of duty. He can't survive in the middle of things anymore. He's going to flip a switch soon and turn off. I have to ask that we all come together and talk and sherry can join, but I'm in this conversation. I'm taking ownership of this. I'm taking ownership of myself again.

Edited

And I just need you. You and me. And Lucy. These six days just us

I need you too and I don't want your dad to shut down so whatever I can do please let me know

5/6/24, 10:37 PM

Hi I'm sorry I have been sleeping so much today

I'm okay

Until waking up to the cops being here. My dad called them and two ambulances are here and the same police officers as the night of the break in. I don't know babe this is all too much

Aw babe I'm coming home so soon I love you so much

All I was doing was sleeping and trying to get a little space

Aw love, what are they doing now

Leaving soon. They want to give me a tablet something about it have by help on it. I'm declining ambulance ride . Apparently my mom is a riot and sherry is throwing advice at my dad. He just snapped like I said he would

Honestly I need this to stop

All of it

This is a circus here

Omg I need to be home

I also called the place from yesterday morning and said it was a horrible experience and we won't be re scheduling bc they called me twice to re schedule

Really nice convo with aunt Sherry

I really just love that woman.

She tells it how it is. No sugar coating. I respond well to that. Respect that. Feel good about her advice and we are moving her advice forward already. She wants the "best version of Steve back" in her words and we can't kid ourselves until we get there. And getting there is going to take time. So she's happy to hear me say I'm accepting of that and she was happy to hear I have a genuine plan in place with a supporting inner circle I can share everything with. She emphasized leaning on that circle like it's an acute treatment for myself. She said basically that living those thoughts moments alone in my mind will spill over into setbacks and I won't be aware that it's happening but I can be aware if I'm harboring emotions in a series of moments that add up to the setback it will cause. But it's two parts, the family (which I'm so fortunate that the family part of my support circle comes with strong medical professionals), but also my circle of care-giving medical professionals versed in what I need specifically (psychology and psychiatric professionals). She said for how badly the medical community failed me, having a screening booked for May 29th with a real appointment just weeks after that, that it's great to have scheduled so we can put to practice the other parts of my plan while being on meds that certainly aren't hurting

That's all from me! Let me know what time to be home please so I can plan my day

That's great glad you got to talk to her! We are not far from home gonna stop one other place then head back I can take Lu out

How are you?

I'm good. I think good is great right now. A little anxiety with noises in here like the ice machine and stuff just a high auditory sensitivity but I have calming music on my headphones cancelling some of it out and it's cool in here

What time to come home to leave for chill room. John knows it. It's an upscale kava bar that makes other stuff but most the menu is kava and Kratom infused but taste is better more like GrassRoots . He said it's a chill spot and likes it says we will like it

I loved our weekend together and feel very well rested but still tired funny how that happens but I'm not on fumes so maybe that's why

Awwww I loved our weekend together too love! Have a good day and keep me posted :)

Work is good!

Can we have a cookout dinner with John and Jeremy mid week?

What day is best?

We have all this extra food

Sounds good yes we should

I'm off Tuesday and Wednesday

Do you wanna schedule your lab work for tomorrow or Wednesday at quest?
You have to be fasting so try to do it early in the morning :)

Wednesday morning what can I do to help schedule?

Also..

John just introduced me to a licensed psychology / life coach we just talked for 20 minutes outside tap house here in Gulfport. Such amazing people here. I really liked him. Not sure if something will develop but I may pursue it

Misread your text. I can schedule

Quest or labcorp? And do I provide a referral number or anything or is that all in the paperwork at home? I can check when I get back and schedule this today

Quest and the "order" for the labs are in our shared email

Ok

Lucy ate, ran, and pooped. Stephen ate, pooped, and watched Lucy run. He also took all his meds (minus the hydro). He's also scheduling the Quest appointment for tomorrow as well as a haircut tomorrow (or Thursday) before his friend, Morris, lands at TPA airport. confirmed the psychiatry appointment on June 13

also confirmed that I am on the waiting list for in person therapy through the same clinic

since I was on the spot to decide, I made sure to clarify that if I talk to you and we decide the other option is the better option and we want to do virtual therapy (then delaying the starting of the wait-list clock for in-person therapy) then i can call back today or tomorrow and change it, otherwise, that clock has started as of just now, i have Mark scheduled for next Wednesday morning at 9:45am and psychiatry is scheduled for June 13th

Love,

Please close garage door, i fed and walked lucy who has the beach runs pretty good and uber got to the house early so i rushed out the door not my favorite way to start a Monday. Ill be back early afternoon for lucy and to take my meds im dissapointed i missed taking them. Also my grey zipper wire case is under the drivers seat would you mind leaving it inside

Morris approached me on everything last night. We talked for a few hours about it all. He's truly a good friend. He has our best interest in mind.

He called me out on what i frankly needed to hear. Im so sorry for so much and its just time to get my shit together. I dont have words for how i feel. Just ready and wanting so bad to be what you need and to return to who i am. Who i see i dont like and im concerned as well

My heart and mind are just straining in every possible way to be anything besides what i am currently and the guilt i put on myself is incredible. Im spinning and folding in upon myself and the weight isnt allowing me move, like im frozen mentally stuck inside my own brain watching another version of me fail at living my life.

I dont have to be everything at once, i just have to focus on me, you, and us and go from there. The only things i love dearly are those.

Morris was the right person to call me out on many related things it was very direct.

I feel like im losing you. I want to talk until its all on the table. Its the only way to start

Edited

6/3/24, 4:57 PM

Hi lovie, just seeing this. I love seeing you appear on my phone. Grassroots was good after we talked. Thank you again. I had a really good call then john set up and have another really good short term opportunity to stand up tech stuff for a new medical spa he knew needed help. They loved it so 1-2 weeks will know and they want to move quick. Im not excited nor have fanciful this or that, but i know when people have budget and pain points i can solve and am good at. The feedback i got felt nice.

And it fits the profile of what work we want to do and the type of company i suspected we could do it for and seems right so far

Also, I meant to tell you, I took my meds when I got back today

Love you babe thank you for this update and sounds like a good next step to work on setting up the tech for the med spa and so glad John can support you in that too!

Loved "Also, I meant to tell you, I took my meds when I g..."

Loved "And it fits the profile of what work we want to do..."

Im going to be sharing a lot more. I know i havent been and it means i dont get your feedback i value so much and need frankly. Ill explain what i believe as ive thought it through and will ask a couple things to help me help us in that department as i know what i need help with

That was an awful sentence

Yes sounds good! Wait what sentence?

My writing was poor i mean disregard haha

Ohh got it!!

Tomorrow I have work so I feel bad about morris and getting to the airport

What time is his flight do you know

Hows your day love

Oh thats right ok its totally no problem. Has been a cheap trip he doesnt mind

Paid mortgage, ordering groceries trying for delivery for today, might come tomorrow, and i called Steve the handyman and left a VM asking about washer and dryer

I also called three therapists in the Florida BC/BS network leaving them messages inquiring about marriage therapy. Ill let you know what i hear. I read on my healthcare account that we only have emergency services covered outside the state of florida.

Do you know if thats correct or not?

Babe thank you omg I forgot about Steve and the tenants thank you so much for following up about that! Ah! I have a service I think we can get like 6 free therapy sessions but I'll look more tomorrow

Thank you for ordering groceries and paying mortgage really appreciate you and I'd like to know process of paying mortgage too sometime

Hmmmm re coverage I'm not sure let me look into it do you mean for MH services or any health services I think we have it as long as they're in network?

6/4/24, 6:11 PM

Our network seems to be just florida and only emergency services outside of out of state/in-network providers but that amount is purposely next to zero because in florida is so strong in providers. I see the benefits if someone is in-state the large majority or their healthcare and work just something to know about if we are visiting anywhere else outside of florida or seek coverage for a claim we need done outside of florida

Anyway how is work, how are you feeling

6/4/24, 7:22 PM

Ok hmmm good to know re insurance! It's so busy here ah!!

How are you love

All good here thanks love:)

Tell me about your day later.

busy = good stories

Awww sounds good! Did morris head to airport

Yep. Complete coincident, but john gets his hair cut in tampa go figure and he literally was going to be driving right by the airport on the same highway at the same time morris needed to get there

If you wanna try here is his number. Thank you please try. Very unlike him

Steve says we need a new stove bc can't find new parts for it

Dryer he needs to go to appliance store to get a part

Standard 30 inch stove electric that we would need to get

Ok dryer is fixable. Need to get dimensions for current oven

Perfectp

Ugh ok

Steve said he could pick up new stove and install

Amazing what a guy

He really is

Pick up from where? Did he specify where to ship

He said he could pick up a stove for us he's always at Home Depot and Lowe's so he is gonna let us know

Ok should we pick one out?

Assume so

They are like a grand

If we find one we like we can order and pay and he will pick it up

We need "slide in electric"

For 30-inch electric ovens specifically, the cost ranges are as follows:

Home Depot:

- Freestanding Electric Ranges:
 - Low cost:
 - Average cost:
 - High cost:
- Slide-In Electric Ranges:
 - Low cost:
 - Average cost:
 - High cost:
- Single Electric Wall Ovens:
 - Low cost:
 - Average cost:
 - High cost:
- Double Electric Wall Ovens:
 - Low cost:
 - Average cost:
 - High cost:

Lowe's:

- Freestanding Electric Ranges:
 - Low cost:
 - Average cost:
 - High cost:
- Slide-In Electric Ranges:
 - Low cost:
 - Average cost:
 - High cost:
- Single Electric Wall Ovens:

update from lawyer

Thank you!

What does it mean in golf to “play from the tips”

aw i love golf questions from you you know how at golf courses, for each of the 18 holes, there are mens tee boxes and women's tee boxes from where golfers start each of the 18 holes from? these are designated areas. women's tee boxes are closer to the hole you're trying to get it. one tee box and one hole for each of the 18 different holes on the course. If man, you play the men's tees from each hole, drive up, and then the women tee off. however, for men, there are normal tee boxes that are right behind the women's tee boxes, but then the difficulty goes up as courses put additional tee boxes even behind the men's tee boxes. typically 2. The furthest tee box from the hole is the tip. so the tips are playing from the hardest, furthest tee box from all 18 holes you got the long version. the "I'm on the toilet version"

I know you're upset with me but can you let me know if you're ok

Im okay. Finishing something gotta do for work and then home to lucy for dinner and running. Im late getting back to her. Im upset. I have far more love for you than short term hurt feelings. Im trying to distract myself and make good you proud and turn the corner which i can only try each day. I did yoga at 10am on the beach and im gonna do it minimum 3 days a week

Thank you for your message and so glad you got to do yoga how was it? Thank you for trying your best today that's all I ask and I'm trying my best too. Lu will be ok.

6/6/24, 7:57 PM

Hi babe, did you order a new oven? I saw it was scheduled for Friday afternoon. I called Katie to feel out whether they wanted to renew and let her no pressure either way and she said they intend to renew as of now and dont want to move again, love the area, etc. but would confirm before the 60 day mark which is their deadline per the lease they signed

Hi! I didn't order a new oven but I know Steve will go Friday to fix the dryer. Thank you asking them about the renewal!

Dont we have to order a new over from lowes or home depot for steve to pick up friday?

And ill ask if we pay steve i never know

Oh he can pick it up anytime if we let him know it's ordered doesn't have to be tomorrow and I can loomfor ovens tomorrow sometimes with nursing can get appliance discounts!

I told Steve let me know how much dryer part was and to install and we can pay him

Great day for the beach and to regroup from a long day yesterday. Just need to focus and accomplish getting this proposal done but its going to take awhile. Its a complex one and i can do it. I have financials to share. Current state of things. Can we do a convo over dinner perhaps around 730? that doesnt mean i not available to see you until then tho. Ill be home for a late lunch as i brought my breakfast here and i always love when you come visit me. But i want you to have your time and get out of the house to the beach or wherever. This morning was beautiful. So calm and peaceful. I hope its not too hot today. I love you always

Sounds good babe thank you yes 7:30pm will work and let me know if you need anything!!!

What are your plans today? Do you need the car for anything? I might meet john and his friend which got cancelled that one day previously who is helping me with something specific on my proposal and john wants me to meet

I got it

Hmmmmmm June rent check didnt clear bank

I called Luther yesterday about it because I noticed it on our statement was a clerical error on my end. I did not move the rent paid to us for Philly. Let Luther know that I would be sending June and July into checks tomorrow have checkbook and envelope with me to fill out two checks Tomorrow

He left me a voicemail an hour ago, but my phone has been on silent

Edited

Hes fine with it he said no issue

I just spoke to him. Returned his call. Such a nice person. Ill share details later what we discussed. All is fine. Clerical error on my end , he said no fine or late charge and we caught up. I will take 2 checks to mail drop tomorrow. I transferred enough into pnc from crypto to cover more than enough to pay final rent payments and paid off credit card to $0 so we are good there. My mistake tho just glad we have good landlord

How are you love I'm thinking of you

Our case manager here is lovely and I asked for her help in getting the September appt moved up so we will get a call tomorrow or so just wanted to give you a heads up! Then we can get you into TGH system earlier 😊

Im way better. I walked lucy and then couldnt sit still. Cart had enough charge for in-town and back and i just sat down. Im scheduling golf cart repair i know whats wrong with it i just dont like the risk of electrical work its too dangerous.

I asked Mark if you could join this Wednesday at Noon after the 10am in-person follow up with Zainab in Largo. Are you up for coming with me? Its better than nothing this week and i trust him in that he wont pick a side or anything.

We have lots of medical mental health stuff on the calendar this week which im happy about. As for the call tomorrow, you are working so do you want to pick a different day. You said "we" are getting a call so just wondering if youll be with me or at work and im 100% fine either way not confirming.

The golf cart repair guy is meeting me today in town where the cart is parked and thinks he can fix it on site

Great news about cart repair guy thank you so much yes I'm free to join you tomorrow and can absolutely do so. I think you'll most likely be getting a call and hopefully it's just to schedule you earlier than September

I'm think we can prob cancel the Thursday appt but let's play it by ear for now

Are you off tomorrow?

No 🙄

Do you mean join me wednesday with mark?

I meant free to join you Wednesday sorry

Ok

Thank you. I love you. So i know tomorrow im getting a call only to reachedule the sept appt to earlier

6/11/24, 10:28 AM

I meant to discuss with you the idea I had of us taking a long weekend cruise. They have them during the week. I think we could schedule around your work. they are also very cheap and all inclusive. I think it would be good for us to get erin to watch Lucy and take some time to get out of Gulfport. I just wanted to plant that idea and I can book it for us after we talk about it I would love to take you on a fun trip so if you have a different idea, I'm off for that. The cruise is just to kick off the conversation.

Thanks for thinking of this babe it sounds really nice! Yes def let's talk through ideas and when we meet for finances too! Sorry I missed Sunday meeting but can meet another time too lovie let me know what's good for you!!

Maybe we could do it as a birthday gift to ourselves and then also do little things to open for each other like things we make personally for each other instead of buying so then we have thoughtful things and then something fun to do together

That's so nice yes a little birthday gift! I know we have some upcoming expenses like a flight home for you and NH and what not so totally understand if we have to do it later in the summer or can just see the pricing!! I also want to pick up some overtime to help too!

Whatever we do i want to celebrate us

I want to celebrate you

You deserve it

Aw that's really nice babe! Yes we will celebrate us

Letting luther know the july check was mailed. You dropped it at usps just checking

6/11/24, 12:49 PM

Also i have been taking my meds on schedule. I have to fill up my weekly pill holder but i havent missed any except for the night i came home after throwing up i just fell into bed with you but thats the only miss

And i know what pills to take in morning and night. So its easy

Im low on guanfacine so tomorrow we can get another scriipt hopefully. Ill write out my inventory of whats left for each again and update that based on what is left

Thank for for this update babe really appreciate it and yes I am hoping she will prescribe more tomorrow and I can pick up for you! We can ask her about the guanfacine I'm not sure how long it takes to work but also might be one that isn't a good fit if you don't think it's helping with your focus and what not

I read up on it and its 4-8 weeks to work. I look at it more of a Bp thing as im not optimistic it will help with focus. Id like to take my BP in the morning. I keep saying that but i really need to know and i feel like its low. I took a hydro today too. Just feeling down and its raining not sure that matters but hydro isnt really for that i think it helped tho.

Edited

Awwwww yes babe I agree we really need to take your BP and make sure it's not getting too low aw yes take hydro if you need and the rain always makes me feel down I'm def cranky at work today!

I'm sorry you're feeling down love I'm here for you! Love you so much

Also sorry I have the car babe I can get you an Uber if you wanna go into town or even st Pete

Im in town now. Came in around noon ish i think. Had enough charge. Im meeting the repair guy in town not at the house. We meet at 4. I gave lucy a lunch and cracked the back door incase she needs to go outback and she always does when we are gone she loves it and it stopped raining. Fed her lunch incase the repair guy takes awhile but after yeaterday he knew what part to get to finalize the fix today

Awwwww ok sounds good love! Yes great idea for Lu and she will be fine no worries! Glad golf cart guy can meet you in town!!

Omg you two are so cute

Needed this thanks babe

Miss you both 😔

Loved an image

There were 11 dogs inside Low Tide at one time it literally felt like a dog specific destination. It was just too distracting for me and Lucy. She was hiding under my legs and then she was pushing her ball out into the middle of the floor and everyone wanted to talk to her and her which was so cute but I just ran her some more. She pooped again and now I need to get back to work.

Awwww oh my gosh babe 11 dogs yes that's so many! And with that many she prob wants to socialize she is so cute 😊

I'm so ready to be home haha

Can you send me code you just got

Just saw this. Yes send it again ill be ready

Ill just fix this so you dont need me in the way to see accounts that okay? Give me 10-15 min ill do this now

Sounds good thank you!

Adding your cell what code did you just get please

4988553

Thanks!!

They make this so annoyingly difficult im still workin on it

I'm trying to add you as a independent user with your own username and password and two factor authentication so when you login the passcode goes to your phone number not mine but they don't seem to allow that and you can only have one phone number for two factor authentication, but you can have two phone numbers for SMS alerts, which are just worthless this or that texts not helpful or what you need

Just read i have to call or visit a branch

I can call now. You should be able to login under my user name and password and when i give you the texted passcode, that will get you in to everything you need

For now

Sounds good no worries about setting up my own login for now and I'm out with Lu so not gonna login right now

I just got off the phone with PNC . To add you as authorized user to my personal checking account with PNC we have to go in person and you have to bring two forms of identification, and then you would have your own username and login to access my checking to get your username and password with your two factor authentication for the joint account, you have to enroll in online banking on the PNC website which I can do for you but you have to share the code that you get and I have to enter your Social Security number which I have saved safely and can do this for you. That way you would have a username and password of your own that can allow access to our shared account, but it will not allow you to see my personal checking account unless we go to PNC branch and add my personal checking to your account so at that point, you would have one set of credentials to login and see both accounts.

Ok thank you yes I was trying to access shared account and only saw the one in LastPass so wasn't sure if it was your personal or the joint Either way I can try and set up my own login for the joint account! Thank you!

Its just me here at lowtide if you want to swing through on way home and sit with me we can do it together. Your call

Please share code

Mr cooper sent a code

Adding your phone number to that account and recording a video walkthrough of paying monthly mortgage

821351

Thank you yes just got back want to clean the bathroom and do a little more computer work

If you want to go to fort desoto later let me know!

finishing up the video i did for you for all mr cooper mortgage related stuff. Where do you prefer i send it when its done? I have to skip the beach which brings me great sadness .

Can send it to me via text or email

I scheduled a full house cleaning. Met someone who is doing a favor for me in exchange for a favor and its being arranged for next week.

Not confirmed yet just letting you know. Shes calling me this evening

Please share amazon code just arrived

Or let me know when ready incase i have to have it resent

Im aligning you to as much access to as much as i can

And If you want to go to beach without lucy ill take care of her or run her or whatever u need

467009

Omg cleaner that's great babe and thank you for the access

Resent

Can you pls share code again the last one expired

We can do it later all good. Ill come home to check on you and lucy i can take her out before i return

Why are you opting to make an enemy of me?

Am i driving you out? Am i that intolerable?

Or is it me

As in im the problem for both of us

I will talk if you want but your parents and my dad and Mary need to be present. Won't change me wanting to move out and you said last night you'd help me with this.

In a moment of habit, I took a picture to share. Then, this sadness is so strong. To not send it means so much. It's our family. It's our Lu. We raised her together and we have grown with her, she's seen us every day loving each other, always seemingly nudging her self into a space we make room for - that little head getting between our knees to just get a piece of every loving moment. I can't bring myself to not send it but I took this picture hours ago. Before it, I took 5 others I couldn't bring myself to share and then the guilt that came from deleting a small gift - one sharing a moment while you're at work, the family that is so accustomed to that amazing of you coming home from work.

I've read and reread your two texts all day, drafted a half dozen responses, deleting every Lucy picture you always appreciate so much,

I'm in a space of only lost sadness. I have no fight in me to contend with you. I reiterated to you my unconditional love to last night. No conditions, only love and any support or effort you need of me, I wanted you to know it's okay and I'm always going to love you more every day. So you have it. If these are your conditions, terms are your setting to challenge my unconditional promise, then you have it, you have whatever resource we have together, without terms, without resistance, without conditions.

I replay yesterday over and over. This cloud over has existed for so long - we acknowledge it's there. We talk about it. But when we agree in the foundation of love that survives despite, we nod to its existence because we have always overcome our own selves, and any circumstance, any imperfection. You understand that cloud so intimately, far better than I do. I want so badly to face it with you.

The level of pain I see in your eyes, how it surfaces, how it speaks, it makes me lose any care for myself. I have no guard to fake. I'm broken. I'm losing you.

I replay the last few days, yesterday's birthday, and yesterday's conversation at the bayou over and over.

I think about how foolish I am or how disappointing I have become to you. I keep kidding myself, falling for the existence of a love I swear exists, because it exists so strongly in me, for you, at a mutual level of love that gets challenged in every way but has only gotten stronger, making us stronger, our little family stronger. We kept proving ourselves right, and love always conquered on our behalf.

For me, despite my imperfections, your imperfections, I felt so thankful to be loved by you regardless and to reciprocate the same...to get, and to give, those small moments that are so important, that represent what carries us through anything... love we both nod to and acknowledge, in agreement, it exists...unconditional love. I know what that is, and I know how beautiful it is. And I know how fleeting it had become in you, for me.

I carry no blame or resentment for this. I've let go. I am deeply sad that I cannot understand your feelings. I am here to hear the harshest of opinions of me, my wrongdoings, and who you see as your husband in these life struggles.

I am the central point of months of my loved ones' attentions, and I see it unraveling as I'm approached from each corner within the smallest of family circles - unraveling all at the expense of me. I'm done. I'm only going to give moving forward. Love, money, help, conversations, if you want any of those and more, take it.

Please consider coming to therapy tomorrow at 4:45 pm with me. I will respect your request to leave you alone before and after, but please sleep on it. You don't have to talk in the session, only listen

Will sleep on it

6/19/24, 7:56 AM

Fed Lu

6/19/24, 10:26 AM

I hear you. Ive listened to what little youve shared. I should abide by that. And i will.

I was kindly asked that you be left alone. So, as difficult as that is, im honoring that. I won't be coming home tonight. Or any time in the future.

Your desire to find your own place and for our money to fund two places isn't necessary if i leave. Its no longer a burden. You dont have to endure that of moving out, moving in somewhere else, then only to quickly move again back to Philly

You are focused now on just you. I wanted that. Im accepting it and getting in your way is all i am doing simply be being, and existing in the same home as you.

Since im not in your current equation or focus, there is no room in that equation for you, or i needing to know each others location. Those alerts, coming and going and having that visibility doesnt align with your ask of me. So i removed my location permission from the life360 app. Please do the same.

You have no more responsibilities to burden you. I am not kidnapping Lucy. I want that to be known. Lucy is part of the "us" equation. It cant be part of the on focusing on you equation.

Im focusing on us, that includes me, but also includes you, and that included us, all three of us. In my mind, every day in the past and every day moving forward will be consumed with that focus, and to allow you the space you kindly asked me to provide you.

The lease is paid in full now. You have that house until August 31st to use as you please. It's yours. I won't be coming back. Everything there is yours to keep, sell, or take with you. I only took what i needed to live and what lucy needed to live. Lucy is ours. She's focused on us forever. "Us" is one person to her. For me, "us" is collectively the three of us me + you + lucy. Thats the equation im focused on. With only love.

If you need to talk to me for whatever reason im going to make myself available. If you cant reach me, say my phone is off or not next to me, there only a few places ill be in that moment. So you know where to find me, you know how to reach me, you know what im doing, and you have a good idea of where i am. Im available to you, just speak up. Until then, im going to hold my word. You have the space and i hopefully less a burden with me, without us, and a place to rest and plan whats next, whats best, for you.

I texted barb. I want you to know that before i speak to her. Shes your sister and shes a great one to have. Im going to tell her what i see and feel. My concerns for you. Thank you for offering me the your blessing in doing that. I will not be calling Sherry, your dad, mary, or anyone else. I will hand over my love for you to barb as i trust her completely. You may join me at 4:45 at Marks to listen only if you want to. Im not requiring any commitment from you, especially one day later after you asked for space and shared the news that you wanted to not live in the same home as me, as us, and to do so for you. I will not leave out what my role is in this to barb, i will not present myself to be a victim. I am responsible for my role in this. But i can no longer support what you need. I have check. It was dated for yesterday but if you cash it, it will bounce. Ive sold pretty much every last investment to prepare it in an account that will be visible and available to you. Venmo has a cap in terms of how much i can send at once. If you need any amount immediately, i will venmo you as much as i can today. Our money is your money. I wont be a gatekeeper to our money if your telling me you need it for the benefit of your immediate well being

And the jeep is yours to keep indefinitely. Whether you drive it home to philly, or leave it wherever, you can consider it yours. If i have to transfer the title to you so you can register it in your name, i will draft up a bill of sale and label it a gift so you dont incur PA sales tax and you can then register/insure in your name

6/19/24, 2:50 PM

I won't be joining you for your therapy appointment but please return home and stay/sleep here

I spoke to Letha Miller. The woman on the first page of the document i sent earlier. The one i hoped would call me back.

Letha is in-network for us and is only an 8 minute drive

she practices EFT - which stands for Emotionally Focused Therapy.

says "couples that go through EFT have a 90 percent success rate, 75 percent no longer need treatment, compared to a 35% success rate for the next leading couples therapy." EFT was started by a woman named Dr. Sue Johnson, if you want to learn more.

I only spoke to Letha Miller for 15 minutes. She offered you the same, so we are coming into the same environment together.

I booked the appointment for Thursday, June 27th at 3pm. If that overlaps with your flight to the wedding, she said Tuesday, June 25th at 11am am also available. I will do either one.

Im coming home.
