I'm asking everyone to record themselves singing happy birthday and to please send to me. You'll each be part of the video but it won't be just you. It will be really cool. Do you think you could records yourselves singing happy birthday and send it to me by tomorrow evening?

Hi! I sent that to some of the Bemer fam yesterday. I know it's a tad awkward to do but it's gonna be a Brady bunch style music video with everyone in it!

Hey Court! Our dog walker won't know until 11:30am today if she can let Lucy out/feed her at around 4:30pm and I'm afraid she won't be able to. What are the chances you're around today and could maybe possibly pretty please with a cherry on top come by today?

Oh gosh of course!

I'll be around all day— what time should i come?

If you want to just cancel the dog walker im more than happy to come over and feed and walk her as well!

Ohh yesssss amazingggggg thankkk youuuuu

Anytime 430-530

I'll leave the door unlocked

Lovely! Are you guys going to md? Meliss needs a day to relax that little bookworm!

Also just let me know how much to feed/ where lu's food is!

Melissa took a shift today! She was out the door at 5am down in Philly. Dave invited me to golf with Matt and Michael Ryan who just got back from a tour in Australia

Her food is in a giant tuber ware on the pew seat in the kitchen to the right. Scooper inside. She gets one bug scoop

9/17/22, 3:35 PM

Hiye are you around at at this afternoon/ evening i could call ya?

Yep! Any time

Jon (founder) also said he'd prefer to a discounted fee for services vs free.

It solidifies and formalizes things a bit more. Will iron all that out and won't be a ton but I think that's the best approach.

Send along your email when you can

And congrats on landing your first client :)

Thank YOU for thinking of me!!! So great!!!! And i am excited! Courtney. collins2@gmail.com — see ya at 3 tom! Thank you againnnnn!!!

Hey, sorry for the delay we had to re-prioritize a different project but we are still moving forward with the mock ups. I still have some work to do but let's plan for middle of next week.

10/26/22, 10:16 PM

Hi Court! Jon is setting us up with 3 groups of five Alzheimer's researchers. The goal is to start late November and complete phase 1 of UX testing by mid December. Our initial timeline was a little ambitious since it takes some time for Jon to assemble and get their commitment. We will align the groups of 5 for you and I will walk you through the mock-ups ahead of time so we feel good about it

11/3/22, 1:51 PM

Sounds great! Do you need any help reaching out to people or better coming from Jon? Don't want to step on his toes - or once confirmed i can help coordinate or whatever needed— just let me know!

11/3/22, 3:17 PM

Ok good for now I will keep you posted!

11/19/22, 7:28 PM

Happy, happy, happy, happy birthday!

11/19/22, 8:52 PM

Thank you so much cutie!!!

11/21/22, 2:12 PM

Hi there! We are meeting wed from 5-6 right?

Eek when I scheduled it I didn't realize it was day before thanksgiving I'm gonna have an issue for sure. I'm with Jon now actually. He says hello!

Totally fine! We can def pick another date/time! Let me know what works best for you! Hello jon!!

11/28/22, 7:49 AM

Hi there! Hope you had a good thanksgiving and some quality time with parents this weekend! Wanted to ask if you could send me what you have for the mock up— we are still good for fri between 2-3 yes?

11/29/22, 8:15 AM

Hello! Jon is making a push to finalize Friday's focus group. We have sign ups for the other two Fridays following but we only have one for Friday. Yes I will send you what we have ready but would be best to show it. Are you free Wednesday? I'm flexible. Can do evening

Yes wed works! Wanna say 630? Is that too late?

Nope! Sending invite we can use google meet

Perfect— thanks!

11/30/22, 9:04 AM

Slight chance we condense three sessions to two and cancel this Friday. We just don't have the signups. But the second two sessions are filling closer to 5 each. Jon started inviting more this week and we have a sign up sheet I'll show you. Let's still talk tonight and review the wireframe mock-ups and plan for Friday. If it gets pushed we are "Gucci" (as Barb would say)

Also apologies this hasn't been the timeline we envisioned initially and thank you for being patient.

Omg totally fine and understand 100%! See ya tonight!

11/30/22, 5:24 PM

Hi there! I know the time is set for 6 but my train is running a little behind— is 615 ok?

Yes! Text me when you're joining. Won't be a long call and no worries if you're rushing. Barb and her dog just showed up so the madness is here

Hahahaha awwwww she decided to keep him! Loveeeee it! Perf! Should be around 625— still on lovely septa

Ok just to ease your mind, and mine, we aren't holding the first of three sessions this Friday. We are steering people to the second two dates in December

The third we can move to January and have the holiday break to make improvements based on the first two UX session in December

Gotcha! Im ready whenever! No rush at all!

Let's reschedule and don't fret it. I gotta eat some dinner

Oops!

Hahahahah

Love it!

Same time!

Enjoy din! Tell babs i said hi!!!

And i guess your wife too lol

Tomorrow same time or what works?

Emphasized "And i guess your wife too lol"

Works for me!

Lets do tom then!

Just moved the invite! talk then.

12/1/22, 6:42 PM

Hi there! Do you want to reschedule for a better day/time?

Awesome— thank you thank you! Have a good day!

12/8/22, 11:02 AM

I'll be setting up the mock ups tonight and sharing the rest of it with you. We still have an audience of one for tomorrow so very safe friendly crowd still Great!!

12/8/22, 3:09 PM

Quick question- a new user would obviously go through wolly but would wolly be there for a repeat user? Like is he there in lieu of the search engine bar so the idea would be that he would ask the name of a repeat user after they login- it would just skip to slide 16? To start the search?

I feel like slide 2 answers my question lol

Wolly or whatever we call it would be the handholding service for all interactions on the platform. Except if they click into the research.

Or if they click into any part of the ecosystem

Got it

Ty

So I guess it's just top level for a mid level interactions to point them into the direction

Or mid level *

Hey! So the first version of the clickable demo is done and in InVisionApp...I added a last page that shows the ecosystem options. We have plenty to show and talk through.

Great call

Please cc me and jon@pubtrawl.com

Will do!

12/16/22, 5:00 PM

How did the call end? I thought that went really well !

Same!! Just was asking her about colleagues and whether she was interested in the peer thing/- she said yes but that feature is something she has come across already but confirms that is something a researcher user would want. She was so lovely! Hope your call went well and have fun at your after xmas party! Great job per usual!!!

12/22/22, 10:22 AM

Hello!

Jon is asking for an invoice so we can pay the first $250 payment and will have a third focus group in January and issue second payment. Work for you? Let me know if you want an example template for an invoice. Microsoft word has templates as well. And any write up on the second focus group will help. I don't take the best notes haha...Jon appreciated the last one too but absolutely zero rush. Thank you!

12/27/22, 4:55 PM

Hi! Yes i can work on an invoice and send over to you! So sorry for delay! Today is the first day i actually feel like myself again lol ( had the flu) — hope you had a relaxing christmas and will send over the latest report before the new year!

12/28/22, 8:11 AM

No problem! Glad you're feeling better. I saw your email and will take a look. Also jon wants to write you into a grant and didn't know he was doing that which is great but wanted to see what you thought of his email about that. Can catch up later to fill in gaps

Hi Court, did you get a $250 check from Jon? Just checking

Yes! Just put into my account the other day! I had it in my car and totally forgot about it until the other night — typical lol— thank you! Hope you are having a good day!

12/2/23, 11:12 AM

Hey can I call you now? Are you free?

Or just let me know what time works?

12/2/23, 12:47 PM

Hey sorry we just had a long talk down by the beach which always helps and she opened up about a lot and I know feels better but also needs a friend

Aw good so glad! She is a strong little one but you guys compliment each other! Glad you got to talk- did you share you reached out to me or no? I am just at the museum of illusions but was gonna call her after! I was thinking maybe i could come down this week? I dont want to push her though! Thanks for reaching out- i would do anything for that little love bug she is so so so important to me and never want to see her sad—i know you feel the same

She's napping. She doesn't know yet I will tell her when she's up and she did the same thing for me but the last couple days were just another level of me not knowing how to help and I think its better but I've thought that before so I just want to make sure she isn't just good at making things better by saying it bc I can't tell and yes she's tough. So tough. But it's hard to read sometimes and yes just want to see her have an outlet which I am but sometimes she's protecting me. So thankful for where that comes from but we all need an outlet and its more about ensuring that she's able to tell me anything and its no burden but if she can't yet, she has her person to go to for that moment

Sorry that was one long sentence

12/2/23, 3:27 PM

I agree i think she is really good at making people think she is ok when she is going through it but i know she has been worried about you and just wants to be supportive and didnt want to seem like she wasnt. I told her you knew she was there but how are you? That job appears to be sucking the literal life out of you and she didnt want to see that happen.

12/2/23, 10:06 PM

Thanks so much Court. Meant to say thank you earlier. She really needed the support today and means a lot thank you

Delivered

12/3/23, 11:16 AM

Oh gosh no thank you's needed— would do anything for you guys! And thank YOU for reaching out!
