Got it

1/11/24, 11:56 AM

Travis, apologies but we have to postpone the golf cart improvements and services we texted about previously. I will call you when we are back in town in a couple months thanks you. All the best

Ok

1/11/24, 3:08 PM

If it makes it any easier. I can pick up and hang on to the car till you get back and Take care of the street legal while your gone?

We really appreciate it. As of now no thank you. We love the option just bad circumstances at the moment. You're our guy we'll turn to when we are back in town thanks again very much

Ok thanks

3/22/24, 9:03 AM

Good morning what time works for you?

I left the cart with the key in it within an open garage door. Very easy to see and take. I will be home around 2:30-3pm otherwise no one is home as I had a change of plans due to work last minute . You are welcome to go there in the morning before I return or this afternoon when return.

Ok

Just so I know, please let me know your ETA. It's your call. Whatever works for you. I forgot to give you a write up but can do that now assuming it will be helpful.

Write up?

Ok one sec

If you're talking about the details I don't need that.

I do need a bill of sale and have you signed some papers

Ok then can you arrive 3pm or anytime after? Apologies if you had planned to arrive earlier. If another day is best that works for me I'm home most days, just got called to a job in Tampa randomly this morning

I can send you pictures if that helps

I'll grab it the way I can get started on ordering parts

If I can get you to maybe stop by here.

Ok I have a bill of sale I can provide . Okay where are you located

6518 10th street north st Pete

My address:

2649 Tifton St S, Gulfport, FL 33711

Ok so just to clarify, you are going to my house to get the cart without me there, then I am to bring you the bill of sale late this afternoon which would be around 4-5pm

Are you available to talk on the phone

3/22/24, 11:03 AM

It's right on top

You want me to close the door

No leave open please

Ok

3/22/24, 12:56 PM

Looks like the.
Windshield's gonna be my hold up

Ok curious why but can just tell me all at once no need to share over text now unless I need to know

Everyone that I normally go through was out of stock. Just gotta do some more shopping

That's minus the taxes

3/22/24, 6:20 PM

Got it, so we're looking at $654 for parts and labor, and $599 for DMV stuff, making it $1,253 total, right? If that's the case, I'm good to go. Appreciate the fair pricing.

I plan to pay with American Express tomorrow. Hope that's okay. If not, I've got a Visa as a backup. Just let me know which you'd prefer.

Got Bruce's bill of sale, but no luck on getting a lower one. Attached the BoS pic and the serial number is #AC0111-998098.

Could you also recommend a good golf cart insurance? You mentioned $300/year, but State Farm's asking $830. An intro to your contact would be great. Or just the company name and I'll run with it.

One last thing, our cart's making a lot of noise because it's missing some screws on the roof, causing it to hit the metal frame. It's pretty annoying. We're open to paying more to get this fixed. Plus, if you could check the tire pressure, that'd be awesome. We don't have the right tools.

I'll swing by tomorrow between 9am-11am, if that works for you

Thanks

3/28/24, 9:53 AM

Are you stopping by today or tomorrow for paperwork or to drop off the cart? We just wanna make sure someone is here but need to know your plan. Thank you.

Do I specifically have to be here or can my wife be here and sign my name with my permission?

4/5/24, 9:42 AM

Good morning, when do you think we will get our license plate and what not? Does it arrive in our mail or yours?

Gotta go to tampa and pick it up on monday. Monday to monday.

Ok that's right . Wife was asking and forgot. Thanks

4/8/24, 2:20 PM

Travis, hope you're doing well. I had a nice weekend. I'm just touching base today to see what the progress is and if there's anything I can do to support there is a huge rush on my end so let me know what you need for me.

After 4 we will be all set

Is there a handoff for you and I to get the license plate and exchange cash? I can't meet today if that was your plan. I wasn't sure if I had to arrange work to make sure I was home today or not so let me know. I can drive to you Wednesday as I'll be up your way if that's easier

I have the vin and the title. My intentions was to get with you after I pick up my kids after 4. I can get with you anytime this evening. Whatever works best for you?

You got a time?

4/8/24, 8:55 PM

I can't do Wednesday afternoon meeting at your house. Does Thursday at my house anytime of day work for you? Also need final tally as I'm going to the bank tomorrow for cash withdrawal

140+ The invoice I gave you

Don't forget minus the credit card fee.

4/10/24, 2:02 PM

I will have to arrive tomorrow not today

Or rather can you come to my place in Gulfport tomorrow afternoon?

Ok

4/11/24, 9:05 AM

Hey
What time are you thinking

4/11/24, 10:07 AM

My wife is leaving for PNC shortly and she said she'll be back by Noon

Any time after that

I might not be there when you arrive but if I need to be, let me know. She has cash and can take title from you

Ok that's fine

4/11/24, 1:10 PM

What time you thinking of arriving? My wife is stuck in rain storm

Yeah, and Tampa, trying to buy a boat. This guy has been wasting my time. I don't have an E.T.A

In

More than likely after 4

Ok perfect glad you're not early. Take your time. Yea after 4 is ideal
