Hi team. Just curious if you have any interest in Disney when we visit. My friend would have to meet us in person but she could get us all in for free. If it's only Barb and I she would email us the tickets. She doesn't care either way.

Mike Stiles

I just wanna give her a heads up. We won't be hitting Disney hard. Just seeing some classic things and maybe going to animal kingdom during the day and magic kingdom at night for the fireworks

What is the exact date again for the Disney day and is there an overnight

Sorry I know it's been discussed

If my brain were a cheese for detail, it'd be Swiss

And are we sure Barb is excited and loving the idea of Disney I still can't tell.

Mike Stiles

I can't tell either. But she's going regardless

Mike Stiles

We were thinking since we fly in Wednesday maybe Thursday or Friday. Thursday may be less busy.

Mike Stiles

If you guys are down to go though I'll reach out to my friend liz and see what she says. Either way we've decided to hit Disney but we're not gonna like hit it super hard

Ok you need to know today ?

Mike Stiles

Nah not today. I'd say within a week
