Just wanted to say have a good weekend and I straightened out the hex code issue. I just had to knock that out and I'll give you the walk-through next week when we are in Saint Pete Wednesday or before as needed. I really think Keefer just was rushing everything.

Thank you for handling that and setting everything straight, you rock! Have a good weekend too!!!

Thank you for supporting me this morning. Rough day for Melissa but I'm with her. Checking in quickly.

Did Derek see the email I sent last night regarding the status of google ad? One thing not on there is requesting Derek's list of fixes for the site I redid. I just need to know exactly what wording changes he wants so we can make this live

Hey hope Melissa is okay!! ❤️

So I messaged Derek earlier and he had a doctors appointment B2B Canterbury sales meeting - so he won't be able to look at anything until sometime this afternoon he said. Will keep you posted.

Hi Jami, everything is settling on my end thank you again.

Can you please share your landingi credentials with Nathan? My mobile last pass somehow has the wrong password. He needs to get in Absolutely! I'll share with him now.

Also, to keep you in the loop Derek said he'd just like to wait on the landing page & the Google Ad stuff until tomorrow/or when you're back in office so he can get full details, etc

9/23/23, 3:00 PM

Hi Jami!

I'm arriving late tomorrow night at an Airbnb 10 min from office in Gulfport area. Monday I won't be there all day as I have to head to Fort Myers.

Silly me didn't think about plans for my dog Lucy while I'm gone Monday. I was wondering if you were available or working from the office Monday and could hop over to let her out? Or if you knew of anyone that does dog services like that? I wanted to pay for help so happy to do that for you or any friend you know that can help. Thank you and no problem at all if you can't !

Omg !!! Heck yes, I can totally do that for you and am OVER THE MOON to meet Lucy!!!! 🤗🤗🤗🤗🤗

I tweaked the Canva images

What do you think

Love them!!!!!!

In our RGA meeting for another 90 min then back to office. Didn't see the landingi pages yet but can you ask Nathan for guidance on the subdomain / path creation

I can modify the pages as needed once published

Simple tweaks but look very congruent to our landing pages and website. I really like it

Emailing him now 👍

I think I'll be heading out of the office soon though, need heads down time for data collection Derek has Kyle and I doing and I'm behind on working on it.

Let me know when you're free later today for a brief 1-on-1 to finalize everything on Meta.

Ok that 2-5 event on my calendar is a block for heads down. Anytime towards the end of that

10/20/23, 9:29 AM

Hey, good luck at the golf tournament! 🏌️

Is there any way you can get your eyes on Landingi landing pages & help with the subdomain/publishing sometime later today so we can press play on Meta?

Landing pages are good to go

I can also tweak those later

If we cannot figure out a way to create a path, then create a unique subdomain, it's very easy

Have you heard anything from Nathan regarding that?

He replied in an email last night at about 10pm but wasn't any help on my end haha

So can you figure out how to create subdomain in Landingi ? What about learning how to do the path using SWFL subdomain. There are instructions out there

Doing that now

So we should be all clear for everything. Just wanted to make sure you were okay with everything before rolling out, sorry for any misunderstanding there. Have a good game 🏏

10/23/23, 1:58 PM

Can you make small talk for three minutes? I had to run outside.

I'm heading back in

No problemo!
