Hey Steve, it's Roy!

Super random I know, but I made a resolution/goal this year to reach out to everyone I know and send some encouragement! Just making my way through haha

I hope all is well with you and your family! 🙏

Love you to brotha, and it's great man! Nadia has been such a blessing bro 🙏 she's been putting like a roadmap of growth for me to pursue which has been incredible. It's just wild the people God chooses to put in your life and what can happen!

I know you were that person for me when I first onboarded with Paylt, and it's cool to see the transformation as time progresses.

How about you man, how's the new role?

Sorry I never saw your text. Just opened my phone to say hi and reading it now. Let's catch up next week. Would like to touch base and catch up. Also just wanted to say thank you for being an inspiring person and great co worker. So glad Paylt feels like home and you're enjoying it while supporting you family
