Or what is your preferred delivery time?

That is fine. My wife would be the one meeting the delivery person and paying if that's okay with you. Can I provide you her phone number to make it easier ?

She knows to put cash in envelope I just told her

I didn't see you say later at first. We can wait until you get home to make it easy.

There is one hang up, courier just told me they are out of trop carts. As a sativa replacement it would be Candyland. Does that work for you?

Or would you like a different option?

If it's okay with you, can you deliver to my wife at 5pm I won't be home this evening. Delivery person can text me when arriving and I'll text her to make it easy.

Candyland is fine with us!

I hope that works for you guys

That works just fine. Courier will be there at 5 and confirm with you.

Great we appreciate the accommodation she will be there
