Hello, you mentioned you were returning to improve our black out curtains that are not blocking out light. We haven't heard from anyone. Should we just contact the store?

Good morning, my apologies I have a new phone and nothing's programmed. Who's this? And what store did you make your purchase?

King of Prussia store. Stephen Boerner. 246 N 3rd St.

Let me check my notch I'll get right back to you

Notes*

Yes, thank you for the reminder. That's something I can correct myself and I can correct myself. Might you have an availability this weekend this weekend, Saturday or Sunday?

Sorry spellcheck keeps doubling up Sentences

I'm around all weekend. What works best for you?

Saturday 11:30?...

Sure

Thank you see you then

Hello, it looks like this is pulling out from our walls. Should I call the store?

That bracket is installed with a mounting plate behind it. You did. Hey often don't sit properly. That bracket is installed with a mounting plate behind it. You did. Hey often don't sit properly. Addressing matters on my checklist when I return. You need rings should I so the drapery can slide back-and-forth. I'm going to address the side of returns to take care of light control issues And address the mountain plate

Sorry my auto correct is horrible

I just got my schedule this morning and I'm headed to my 1st installation. The 1st chance I get I'll take a look at the schedule And find the time this week the double back to you
