Can I call you later?

Yes. I called a whole bunch trying to get us help. Please remind me your name

Hello, my name is Letha Miller

Hi Letha, I was hoping this was you. You are the one who stood out to me. After many days of calling anyone and everyone I could find, you're only one of two people who responded. I am thrilled you are taking new patients and are in the network for us.

Are you free at 7:00 pm this evening? (Or, I am available any time tomorrow)

Also, if it's a fit, would you be available as early as next week if it would be feasible for a first appointment with my wife, Melissa, and me? I ask because we have a high urgency, and if the wait time is a month, I would have to find something sooner for us

Hello Steve, yes, I am available at 7:00 for a 15 minute consult. Thank you!

It will be just me at 7 pm. My wife and I are currently separated, so I can share with her the information you provide me. Thank you

Okay, I will talk with you at 7:00

Great I will call you then

Sounds good!!
