Hi Everyone - this is your right of refusal text for next year.

Here is what you need to know.

1. Seaphoria was not available for same week next year
2. have found beach front (Seaphoria was not beach front) property with elevator, dog friendly, pool, hot tub, etc. - link to house to follow
3. Price will be around the same per person - give or take $100 or so
4. It is a Saturday to Saturday rental - July 22 - July 29, 2023
5. First payment would be due mid- October

If you could confirm if you are in/out by end of this week that would be great.

Steph and Shea will not included on the invite list for next year
