Yo bro how you been?

Hey! Good man. I live in St. Petersburg, FL now. Oddly, I'm sitting in an office with Aaron Morris who is visiting. What's new with you?

Oh damn what's up Aaron! Hope you boys are well. Just getting settled in Philly again after working up in the Poconos all summer. What brought you down there? Was gonna see if you wanted to hit the Eagles Cowboys tailgate in a few weeks. I'm guessing not lol

Haha I wish. Starting a solar company in St. Pete. Started like 5 months ago with some friends and family

Oh man well congrats and I hope it's going well 💪

Haha we stocked up on those little "tiny hands" that go on your finger and mini Fireball bottles...trying to think of a way to have a bunch of them on her so she can toss em every time someone bumps into her
