LOVE SONG of J ALFRED PRUFROCK:

And indeed there will be time to Lift and drop questions on your plate;
Time for you and time for me,
And time yet for a hundred indecisions,
And for a hundred visions and revisions,
Before the taking of a toast and tea.

Do you think someone should fly down?

P.S. M should not be left alone until hangover is better and she is more stable

Ok I'm here with her now.

I'm not sure if that would be best but maybe because I feel so helpless

We can talk in 1/2 hour

Ok

We are okay meant to update you sorry. Melissa sleeping and all is calm I think she's going to be okay just wants to sleep

Thx for update

Thank you for the help and guidance I will keep you posted

We got her a bath and some dry plain food with some liquids. Her spirit is down but I have the right messaging for the moment. Tomorrow is a new day and she's back to sleep now

Tomorrow is a new day. Will call in am

Ok

Happy to call tonight

Thank you but we are okay tonight. Tomorrow am will be great thank you again

My pleasure

Good morning:)

I'm still worried about Melissa. Sad and depressed since Friday morning. Has been in bed majority of each day since. She has been complaining about nausea a lot, not eating more than a few crackers here or there. Lost a few pounds as well.

can't seem to get her out of it. She doesn't want to talk about the drinking episode which was so rare but there is a history there I just don't know she won't share much on the topic.

Either way, I'm just struggling to help Melissa and wanted to reach out to see maybe if you could please check in with her today. She has an interview at 4pm today for a nursing job in a recovery center and wants to cancel it. I think she should stick with the interview today just to get in a motion of sorts.

Barb and Mike come Wednesday which should help, but maybe you have an idea to help before then?

She mentioned a prescription she wanted/needed, but didn't want to ask you. I don't know what it was called but it was for nausea

Anyway, thank you thank you. Nice to have someone to ask for help on my end. Love her.

is she awake? I will call her in 25 mins

She sent this yesterday:
Still hanging in there! Love you!

She's stirring and said she'll get up soon but phone is charging across the room

She doesn't want anyone to worry about her

Move phone to her bedside in 20 mins. We are past "worrying". Each adult needs to learn to reach out, take appropriate steps to protect their autonomy. Whatever played into this caused Big M to have a meltdown.

Ok

I will not throw you under the bus

Thank you

It's in position

Doubt she'll answer tho I just spoke to her and she wants to rest more

I'm out of room

I will get her to answer

Just checking in - did Big M get up today?

I talked w/her at length and was hoping it made a small difference

HUGE difference!

She's not fully back in her own words yet but totally different attitude, body language, crackin jokes again

Feels great

She feels much better
