Good call on 1st class. It's tight back here! Let's sync up when we get off. Getting a Lyft or Uber to hotel is brutal. I think our hotels are close to each other

Yeah man...I do such limited flying these days I figured I'd do it right.

You good? Missed you at operation breakthrough.

Yea was sorry to miss it. Texted KB and Neil just prior. Felt so shitty I had to go back to hotel and take some meds. Was really hitting me this morning. Should be good for today

Hotel sick sucks. All you missed was manual labor...not a huge loss.
